Re: Letter dated January 24, 2005

Dear Mr. Miller:

I received your letter dated January 24, 2005 seeking assistance in obtaining copies of documents pertaining to your case. My law clerk spoke with Assistant United States Attorney William Witherspoon about your request. Mr. Witherspoon indicated that in November, 2003, the United States Department of Justice requested from you a notarized copy of your signature, which it has yet to receive. Mr. Witherspoon indicated that the Department of Justice is unable to comply with your request until it receives that notarized signature.

With best regards.

Yours very truly,

Cameron McGowan Currie
